GOV. STONE DECLINES TO CON-VENE THE LEGISLATURE.

do. The Governor, after giving the matter the people a constitutions, the search sensiting it to the constitution in the damage by the recent tornado. The Governor, after giving the matter very careful consideration, has declined to call an extra session and has set forth his reasons very clearly and ably. While Gov. Stone declined to convey, even by in muendo, that politics had anything to down the Mayor's letter, there is a strong suspicion that the St. Louis executive was really actuated as much by politics as any citizen most suspicion that the St. Louis executive was really actuated as much by politics as my citizen most firm of the motive. Following is the Governor's letter:

State of Missouri. Executive Department, Mo.: Br.—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the billion, in which you request me to call a give the purpose of submitting to a vote of the purpose of recomprise the electronymary institutions of the city; also for the purpose of recomprise the electronymary institutions of the city; also for the purpose of recomprise the electronymary institutions of the city; also for the purpose of recomprise the electronymary institutions of the city; also for the purpose of recomprise the electronymary institutions of the city; also for the purpose of recomprise the electronymary institutions of the city; also for the purpose of recomprise the electronymary institutions of the city; also for the purpose of recomprise the electronymary institutions of the city; also for the purpose of recomprise the electronymary institutions of the city; also for the purpose of recomprise the purpose of r request, and in the order named.

The first proposition is that the Legislature be convened to submit a constitutional amendment to the people authorizing an issue of bonds to rebuild, remodel and equip the eleemosynary institutions of the city. According to my information the hospital is the only eleemosynary building demolished by the storm. If any other institution of that character was injured the damege was slight and can be repaired at a comparatively nominal outlay. The hospital was an old building, whose value was not such as to make its loss a matter of serious concern. The loss of Hife incident to its fall is to be lamented, but the destruction of the building itself cannot be regarded as a calamity. Its loss has occasioned some inconvenience, and, no doubt, will continue to for some little time to come. I think it safe to assume, however, that quarters can be secured for hospital purposes, ample for present uses, and substantially as good as those provided for in the old building, and that this can be done without seriously embarassing the current revenues of the city. The question then resolves itself into this—shall the General Assembly be convened at a probable cost to the people of $50,000 to $75,000, merely to propose a constitutional amendment to be voced on in November, under the terms of which the city may issue new bonds to provide extraordinary funds to the terms of which the city may issue new bonds to provide extraordinary funds to construct a new city hospital and to remodel and newly equip other eleemosy-ary institutions or the municipality? I am inclined to agree with you that these public institutions are not commensurate with the importance of your city. But that was equally true a year ago, when the Legislature, some fourteen months ago, this matter was not considered of sufficient importance to tring it to the attention of Shat body. I know nothing since occurring that has so magnified its importance as to justify the expense of a importance as to justify the expense of a importanc whelming victory for the Democrats in Nevada.

"If the Eastern people knew more of the conditions prevalent in the Western mining States they would better appreciate our situation. The East forgets that in shutting down on silver they lower the gold output. For instance, in my mines, at Virginia City, which I have not worked since 1891, I have both gold and silver, but I cannot get my gold out without wasting the silver.

"There is the process of gold-washing, which is cheap, by which I could extract the yellow metal, but all the silver would be thrown away. If I try to save the silver by the more expensive process of crushing the ore and separating the two metals it becomes so expensive that it does not pay. "Hence I am obliged to let the mine be side, and the same thing is true of many others."

Although Mr. Cleveland talks despondently about the chances of free silver with the Republican party he does not let it worry him when he gets on to other topics. He is a hearty, brusque man with a full gray beard, the very picture of good health and good spirits.

Time was when he was proud to bear the same name as the honorable President of these United States, but he has gotten over that with a vengeance. When he is out in the Western country he says he always looks around before registering at a hotel to see if any one is watching him, for fear that he will be taken for a relative of the stuffed prophet and sandbagged.

They hate Grover so hard out there, he says, that it is not safe to talk about him unless you have a stick of brimstone in your mouth.

Hon. Cy Leland of Kansas, who is finishing his twelfth year as a National Committeeman, is at Hurst's, where the big delegation from the Sunflower domain will be housed during the convention. They will not arrive before Monday morning.

Mr Leland, while a veteran in politics, is not a wrinkled veteran in years. His blonde hair and mustache and short-cropped goatee and his ruddy complexion are indicative of a man in the prime of life. His features are of resolute cast and mark the political leader and successful man of affairs.

He is regarded as one of the strong men of the committee and a Republican who does not believe in paring policies in making up the issues of a campaign. He would pick a man of absolute decision and unbending party fealty for leadership, and if he falled to win, would still believe that he had made a fight along the right lines. Such a man, he believes McKinley to be, in fact, he says he knows him to be on the tariff.

"And what the country knows McKinley to be as a high protective man," remarked Mr. Leland, "it will find him to be on the financial question. He is for sound moneygold, if you please—and whatever silver that is needed. He is as much opposed to this 16 to 1 heresy as he is to free trade."

"Then there will be no concessions made to the silver men from the West, such as Senators Dubois, Teller and the Chairman of your national committee, Senator Carter, demand?"

"None whatever. Those fellows will take what we give them, and if they don't like it, they can boit, that is all there is to it. In fact, I expect to see some of them boil. And what if they do? It won't affect the success of our ticket in she least. We can easily do without them, with New York and New Jersey, and we've got a clinch on those States, and Connecticut, soo. The Republican party is for gold because gold means a stable currency, that carries with it our commercial integrity to the uttermost regions of the earth."

"We are for free sliver first, last and all the time," he said to a Post-Dispatch reporter. "The people here in the East have a much mistaken idea of us out there in the West. They regard our silver ideas as selfish ones but I assure you they are not. It costs about $12 a ton to mine and treat silver, whereas it costs only $2.50 a ton to do the same for gold.

"Let us pass the free coinage of silver measure and business will revive all over the country, idle labor will be employed and hard times will be a thing of the past. This does not apply only in Utah, Colorado, California and other Pacific Coast States, but to every State in the Union."

"Suppose McKinley declares himself to be an out and out gold man and seme such Democrat as Bland or Boles is nominated on a free silver platform, what then will be the result?"

I am no politiciar and would not even make the lining to an inside pocket of a politician's coat, When I want a thing I go after it hard and straight without any beating around the bush."

NOT SO STRONG FOR SILVER. Delegate Shortridge of California Wants Protection Above All Things.

Samuel M. Shortridge is one of California's delegates to the convention and is at the Southern. He lives in San Francisco, is a lawyer and writes many of the brainy editorials which appear in his brother's pa-per, the San Francisco Call. He belongs to the younger political generation, but is a man of fine presence and a most impressive talker. He will be heard from during the convention man of fine presence and a most impressive talker. He will be heard from during the convention.

Mr. Shortridge is one of the eighteen delegates from the State which has placed its representatives in the embarrassing position of a most pronounced straddle. Their instructions are, first for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1, and second for Wm. McKinley as the Presidential nomines. Now that the Sphinx of Canton is becoming generally considered a gold man who, it nominated, will stand on an unequivocal fold platform, this position is a most invidious one. From the sentiments expressed this merning by Mr. Shortridge, it would seem that the paramount consideration is to be McKinley, with #ingrest.

"We are good stanch Republicate above all things," said Mr. Shortridge, "and while the great mass of the Republicate above all things," and if we can secure an indorsement by the convention of our views on the financial question all well and good, but ynot we shall have to be content with half loaf.

"In a word our position is just this: We think some means should be devised by which our factories may be opened, our workingmen given employment and our stagnant business interests revived. What can be done by protection? Then the question of paying for this comes up and I do not believe there will be any trouble about it in the future, as there never has been in the past."

in build, with a New Yorker by birth, but now a thorough Western man in his political ideas.

He says the delegates from Utah will not bold the convention, even in the face of a declaration for the single gold standard, but he adds, with an ominous shake of the head, that his State will go Democratic in such a contingency and that no one will try very hard to stop it.

"The Utah delegation," he said, "is solid for silver, of course. We purpose doing the very best we can for the white metal in the convention, but we have little hope of accomplishing anything. The party seems determined to commit itself to the gold standard."

"Suppose it does declare for gold, will the Utah delegation bolt?"

Mr. Salisbury shook his head slowly.

"No, I don't believe they will leave the convention," he answered. "They are uninstructed and may co as they please on that point, but I do not think they will."

"They are not as radical in their views on free silver, but not so outspeken as Teller. They will not leave the convention, but nowadays. After I left them I learned to know them."

On the question of candidates the Utah delegates are uninstructed. They are op-posed to McKinley, but who their favorite is Mr. Salisbury says he does not know.

THE GREATEST OF THE SMITHS HAS ARRIVED FROM CANTON.

HOOTS AT FILLEY'S PROPHECY.

If the Ohioan's Forces Get Aggressiv H. C. Fairbanks Will Be Made Temporary Chairman.

Joseph Smith, McKinley's Fidus Achates strode into the Southern Tuesday morning like an Indian scout trailing the enemy. His coming was unheralded, and his ar-

His coming was unheralded, and his arrival was unannounced.

He went straight from the clerk's desk to the headquarters of Judge Thompson, in parior 76. Then he strolled out to the elevator and inquired for the headquarters of Bergeant-at-Arms Tim Byrnes. He did not find this functionary in, but was met at the door by Col. H. L. Swords, who seemed glad to see him.

The Fidus Achates and the Colonel, who, by the way, won't give up the fight for Allison until the ballot is cast and the majority for McKinley counted, held a whispered consultation.

Mr. Smith then returned to Judge Thompson's room and wasn't visible in the busy haunts of the small fry the rest of the morning. He was accompanied on this trip to Judge Thompson's room by National Comitteeman John G. Long of Florida.

Of course everybody by this time knows who Mr. Joe Smith is. But for fear the multiplicity of Smiths may involve this particular representative of the prolific family in some obscurity, it may be well to relate some of the more salient facts that give him a conspicuity at this important juncture of mundane affairs, brilliant almost as the noonday sun in a cloudless sky.

In the first place, there are apostates and other treasonable persons who accuse Mr. Joe Smith of being the author of most of the speeches which Maj. McKinley has delivered during the past few years. There are still others, deserving of the gibbet, who say that but for Mr. Joe Smith the winds in their fury and the spheres in their course would not now be chanting peans to the giory and grandeur of the Canton Major, otherwise known as Napoleon Reincarnate.

These statements sufficiently identify Mr. oe Smith for the present purpose.

The important fact in relation to him now se that he came to St. Louis direct from he McKinley manor at Canton. He left here last night, and the good right hand f him which the Major squeezed in bidling him adieu is supposed to be still dimined with the finger marks then impressed into the soft whisperings that came from the vapoleonic lips. These suppositions alone uffice to make Mr. Smith about the most important personage in the big.and eager surince to make Mr. Smith about the most important personage in the big and eager town to-day.

"Are you the bearer of a message from Gov. McKinley?" a Post-Dispatch reporter made bold to ask Mr. Smith, after Col. Swords released him at the threshold of Col. Tun Byrnes' headquarters.

"No, sir, I am not," was the calm and studied reply of Mr. Smith. "You can say, though, if you want to, that I left the Major in fine health and spirits."
"Have you read or been informed about Mr. Filley's claim that McKinley will not be nominated on the first ballot?"
The glow in Mr. Smith's face disappeared with the suddenness that characterizes the turning out of an incandescent light.
"I know nothing about that," he said, cautiously weighing his words.
"But don't you think the Filley talk means something?"
"Oh, that is simply a St. Louis matter."
"Then McKinley will surely be nominated on the first ballot?"

"It would be better for you to go for information to some of our friends who are managing these matters. But if you don't want to do that, I don't mind telling you that Maj. McKinley will be nominated on the first ballot, beyond all doubt."
"Will this be accomplished under a suspension of the rules?"
"That is a small detail about which I don't suppose anybody is bothering."
Mr. Smith then hurried on back to Judge Thompson's room, and would talk no more.

It was learned from a reliable source that the main tonly discussed at the exception of the suring the section of the suring the suring the section of the suring the surrey of the section of the surrey of the

It was learned from a reliable source

It was learned from a reliable source that the main topic discussed at the conference held in Judge Thompson's room after Mr. Smith's arrival was the McKinley programme for the organization of the convention. There seems to be no disposition among the Ohloan's representatives now on the ground to pursue a rash or even aggressive course in the important matter of the convention's organization.

They appear rather anxious to permit the opposition, if it so pleases, to name the temporary chairman, but, of course, if any undue advantage is to be taken of this privilege they may discard their affected magnanimity and come out boldly for a fight from the start. However, as the section of the National Committee with regard to the contests will expose the intention and disposition of the opposition the McKinleyites will probably await with a show of composure the course of events as determined by the committee before they adopt stern and aggressive tactics. But, in the event of the slightest ugliness on the part of the enemy, there is hardly any doubt that they will take a firm grip on the convention as soon as the Chairman of the National Committee lays down natt in "5s—elect the temporary Chairman ever the recommendation of the committee.

For permanent chairman the McKinleyites are said to be favorably considering the claims of Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana. Mr. Fairbanks is one of the delegates-atlarge from the Hoosier State, and is ambitious to succeed Senator Voorhees, His recognition at St. Louis would help him, & is thought, in his fight to carry the Indiana. Mr. Fairbanks is one of the delegates-atlarge from the Hoosier State, and is ambitious to succeed Senator Voorhees, His recognition at St. Louis would help him, & is thought, in his fight to carry the Indiana. Mr. Fairbanks is one of the recent uprovarious convention at Indianapolits to give McKinley such a hearty send-off over Bensamin Harrison's silent protest.

Everything considered, it seems safe to rely on Fairbanks being made permanent chairman.

N. Huston, National Committeeman from the Hoosier State.

Mr. Huston wants a single standard plank, and as he had much to do with constructing the one adopted by Indiana Republicans, he naturally holds that it is sound enough for anyone.

He is for McKinley and against Harrison, and would not be for the ex-President should the convention reach the unlikely result of an attempted stampede to him.

In the event of a stampede, Mr. Huston declined to say where the Indiana delegation would go, but he is of the opinion that the Ohio candidate is too far in the lead to be in any dauger from a dark horse.

When Harrison was elected Mr. Huston confidently expected to become a member of the Cabinet, After Harrison turned a cold shoulder to the men who made him, politically, the ex-Treasurer of the United States became the acknowledged leader of the anti-Harrison element, which explains why he declines to entertain the possibility of a stampede to the Indiana bridegroom.

State Chairman Webster Is Very Sure

His Crowd Will Win.

His Crowd Will Win.

E. A. Webster, Chairman of the State Committee of South Carolina, is at the St. James armed with a mass of documents to prove that his delegation is entitled to represent the Palmetto State in the National Convention.

With Mr. Webster is E. H. Deas, a colored delegate. South Carolina, as usual, has a contest on its hands. Webster heads one delegation and National Committeeman E. M. Brayton the other. Brayton also claims to be Chairman of the State Committee and will be on hand Wednesday to urge the right of his delegation to sit in the convention.

"Ours," said Mr. Webster, "is the regular delegation and if the contest is decided on its merits we will all sit in the convention and cast our eighteen votes for William McKinley and sound money. I have been Chairman of the State Committee since its and the call for the election of delegates to the national convention was regularly issued by me last March. We held our convention at Columbia, April 7, and chose delegates. Brayton canvassed the State twice and was defeated both times. About a year ago he and his followers got together and claimed to reorganize the party.

He had himself elected Chairman of the arty. He had himself elected Chairman of the bolters and now he relies on his seat in the committee to seat his crowd and oust the regulars. I am satisfied his plan will mis-committee to seat his crowd and dust the regulars. I am satisfied his plan will miscarry.

"We have eighteen delegates divided evenly between the white and colored races and we will all quarter together. That the colored element is entitled to much consideration and representation in our State is evident from the fact that 95 per cent of the vote is cast by them. I do not think I exaggerate matters in the least."

The Webster delegation is made up as follows: E. A. Webster, ex-Congressman Robert Small (colored), T. B. Johnson and Dr. W. D. Crum (colored), delegates at large; George I. Cunningham and R. C. Brown, colored, First District; B. P. Chatfield and W. S. Dickson (colored), Second District; Robert Moorman and R. R. Talbert, Third District; T. E. Ollis and C. M. Weidon (colored), Fourth District; Col. C. J. Pride and W. E. Boykin (colored, Fifth District; Rev. J. E. Wilson (colored, and E. H. Deds (colored), Sixth District; J. H. Fordham (colored) and Z. E. Walser (colored), Seventh District.

National Committeeman Brayton will arrive to-night with his followers, and Wednesday the Bouth Carolimans will fight ft out in the committee room.

He's for Morton and sound money, but any frills which go with this information he will allow Boss Platt and the other big wigs from the Empire State to supply.

Tuesday night Secretary George R. Manchester of the New York County Republican Committee will blow in with a bundle of affidavits and all sorts of proof in support of the machine-elected delexations from New York City. The testimony has all been printed and will be distributed to members of the National Committee and to the members of the Committee on Contested Seats in pamphlet form.

A. C. Botkin, the National Committeeman from Montana, is conservative. He says that he does not see how the Montana delegation can bolt in case the convention adopts a gold standard.

"A resolution to adopt such a course was introduced in the State Convention," he said, "and was defeated by an overwhelming majority, so that it may be said that the Montana delegation has been tacitly at least instructed not to bolt.

"However, I have no right to speak for the delegates, I have not seen Senators Carter or Mantle or Congressman Hartman, three of the leading delegates, for six months, and would not feel myself empowered to say what they will or will not do. "Senator Carter will be found, I feel sure, a conservative factor in the free sliver ranks. His devotion to the cause cannot be questioned, but I have not seen attributed to him any such probable course of action as it has been intimated in the press would be followed by Senator Teller of Colorado. "Of course, the Montana people are for sliver, and I hardly think that the State can be carried for the Republicans if sliver does not secure some recognition. It would be folly to hope for a declaration in its favor, but it may be that the expression for gold may be left in such a way to be open to construction. I believe that Montana would infinitely prefer the Ohio platform to that of New York or Massachusetts.

"Our delegation is uninstructed and unpledged for any candidate. If they cannot have a sliver man I hardly know how they would go for second choice. It is certain almost that they would not vote as a unit. I have only heard one man, Judge Streville, speak favorably of McKinley."

The Delegation Has No Known Place of Meeting Reserved.

four years ago, and will call it up as soon as opportunity offers. If the committee thinks favorably of it, it will in turn present it to the convention, which will decide.

The Scott plan in brief is to change the present basis so that hereafter Congressional districts instead of having two delegates ach will have a representation based upon the Republican vote cast in the district.

He proposes to give each Congressional district one delegate for a fraction exceeding one-half that number. Each district is to have at least one delegate and each State four at large.

The object of the change as suggested by Committeeman Scott, Gov. Hastings of Pennsylvania and others who have been beoming the plan, is to give the States which give heavy Republican majorities the benefit of their loyalty.

The proposition to make a change is being fought vigorously by the delegates from the Southern States. They would be direct sufferers. In the next convention their delegation would be considerably reduced.

Alabama would lose $\frac{3}{2}$. Arkansas $\frac{6}{2}$. Florids 2. Georgia II, Louislana $\frac{6}{2}$. Texas $\frac{9}{2}$ and Vrginia $\frac{3}{2}$.

NO BACKBITING.

The letter printed elsewhere from "A Shannon County Democrat" is eminently creditable alike to his Democracy and his common sense. The Post-Dispatch is reluctant to believe that Mr. Ball is sanctioning the course of some of his friends in trying to promote his candidacy for the Governorship by attacks on Mr. Lon V.

In the first place, no man's chances a competition for party honors are pro-moted by backbiting his competitors. In the second place, a contest thus conducted provokes retaliation and fosters ani-mosities that are sure to be used to the party's detriment in the campaign against the common enemy.

Mr. Ball has a perfect right to be andidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Missouri if he so chooses ciaims to the suffrages of the party voters.

Mr. Stephens has an equal right to be a candidate and to have his claims fairly considered by other Democrats. The obligation is upon both, and upon the friends of both, to respect the No good Democrat will question that upon the friends of both, to respect the rights of each, to maintain the amenities of politics, and to respect the usage which should govern friendly contests within the party for party honors.

Under the terms of the will of the late Henry Shaw 300 acres of land in the vicinity of Shaw's Garden are made inalienable, but the trustees are empowere to lease any part of such lands for not more than sixty years. They represent that they are unable to execute such leases, and that the property, unproduc-tive as it is, has become a burden to the estate. They set out that the rapid building up and improvement of the streets adjoining these tracts, and the special assessments for the opening and that the Administration will support the improvement of streets through these Republican ticket in November a silver lands, will entail an expense of $224,000 in the next three years and $450,000 in the next ten years. They ask power to sell the property to meet these heavy charges against it.

The disposition of intending builders to buy, and their refusal to lease real estate s evidence of legitimate and not spec ulative growth. The estimates of the trustees as to future expenditures for improvements are large, but probably no larger than the facts warrant.

FAST RAILROAD TIME.

It is doubtful if the Chicago & Alto Railroad can maintain the rate of speed which it proposes for the new mail train

Under this proposed schedule a loco-notive with a mail car attached is to leave Chicago at 2 a. m. every day and reach St. Louis at 7 a. m. The distance is 85 miles and if it can be covered in five ours every day the remarkable record of 57 miles an hour, including all stops, and the slow running at terminals, will have been established.

Such speeed it would seem impossible o maintain on a surface track, even with light load and a trip to be made during ours when there is little or no traffic over crossings. Even if it can be maintained Chicago business interests should that sentiment until after the convention, be made to pay well for such a remarkable performance to enable them to get into quick communication with St. Louis business territory. To get Chicago mail out of St. Louis every morning on the same trains which carry St. Louis business correspondence will be something well worth paying for.

One by one the members of Presiden leveland's Cabinet have been repudiated by their States. Alabama repu Herbert; Nebraska repudiated Morton; West Virginia repudiated Wilson (who suffers for the company he is in), and Kentucky emphatically repudiated Car-lisle. Hoke Smith of Georgia is not only idiated but crushed. His State went gainst him by an overwhelming major ity, and he was defeated in his own Con-gressional district, in his own county and his own voting precinct. The affront of sending Hoax Smith to turn Georgia Democrats from their purpose has been properly rebuked.

It is said that Judge Gantt will decide this week whether or not he will become a candidate for the Democratic nomina-tion for Governor of Missouri. BLACKBURN.

CHAIRMAN MOTT SUGGESTS A TICKET.

The voice of the National Silver Party has at last been raised. Jr. J. Mott, chairman of the National Executive Committee, who arrived in St. Louis Monday, asserts that the party will act independently; that its course of action is well defined; that it is assured permanency and importance. Chairman Mott makes a striking suggestion of a ticket upon which he thinks all the free silver forces of the country can be united. He would have Senator Henry M. Teller of Colorado, a lifelong Republican, and Benator Joe Blackburn of Kentucky, a lifelong Democrat, respectively nominated for President and Vice-president.

kentucky, a little with the controlling factor, he has been in constant touch with the great man of the president.

Chairman Mott would not admit his suggestions were any part of a determined plan of politics, but he was free in his endorsement, and enthusiastic. The fact that he comes to St. Louis on the eve of the National Republican Convention, at which a holt of free sliver delegates from the West is freely predicted, may be significant.

That he seeks retirement and will announce no particular purpose of his visit does not lessen the possibilities of speculation. And it may be noteworthy to recall that Chairman Mott has headquarters at Washington, where ever since the formation of the party of which he is a controlling factor, he has been in constant touch with the great men of the nation of a political order. He may have heard things.

Chairman Mott is enthusiastic over the certainty, as he sees it, of a considerable bolt of free silver Republicans, including some of the best known leaders of the party, from the approaching convention.

"Already," he declares, "the vote of at least five silver States can be counted for the Silver party, as surely as anything in politics is ever sure; more surely, for instance, than the nomination of McKinley. The delegates from these States, I tell you, will walk out immediately upon the adoption of a gold standard platform, or the miserable makeshift which is equally bed tion of a gold standard platform, or the miserable makeshift which is equally had and equally certain in the convention. Can you think of any place for these men to go, except into an absolutely new party, formed on the ground of the sole demand they have made upon the party from which they are forced? There is no other place. They will add in a bunch to the already countable strnegth of the Silver party."

Chairman Mott gradually put off restraint in his observations. When asked if a coalition of the People's party and the Silver party, which will hold national conventions in this city the same date, July 22, were not probable, he said:

"O yes, such a coalition is distinctly probable. These parties agree on the main issue and will, I feel confident, get together. I think, further than that, that these two parties will co-operate with the Democratic party, provided it should become a distinct, unqualified and unquestionable silver organization. With three silver organizations formed and complete, what would be the sense in their working on divergent lines and in rivalry? This concerted action, however, will make it necessary for either party to abandon its organization, its other principles, or its identity."

With candidates as his theme, Chairmar Mott is quite as impressive as he is sur-prising, after his first saving clause, drawled out cautiously, with his eye upon space.

prising, areer in that along drawled out cautiously, with his eye upon space.

"As Chairman of one of the elements of the new political aggregation, which I see assured, and as a probable participant in the deliberations and decisions to culminate in this one effort for a great reform, possibly policy would indicate that I should say no more about the possible instruments of that reform in the shape of candidates than is absolutely unavoidable."

Caution to the winds for Chairman Mota. His eyes glisten:

"I am unavoidably constrained to point out, however, that the silver cause is not so thoroughly represented, so consistently personified in any other one man as it is in Henry M. Teller. Others may have done as much for the cause as he has done; certainly none have done more, and no other man has so constantly been in the public eye on this question; no other man to-day is so close to the people's heart on this issue.

"One thing more. Teller has never been narrowly partisan; he has never been narrowly partisan; he has never been narrowly partisan; he has never been vindictive; he has never been sectional. A man of the people, standing upon the people's issue, he is an ideal standard-bearer."

Now the other novelty:

At the monthly meeting of the Mullanphy Emigrant Relief Fund Board of Commissioners Tuesday resolutions were offered by Herman C. Stifel and adopted which, it is believed, will result in setting aside a large portion of the Mullanphy fund for the erection of a public hospital. As illustrating the fact that the fund had outlived the purpose for which it was created the report of Secretary Fishback for May was discussed. The gross receipts were $3.564, and the expenditures $1.555. Only $10 was expended in the relief of the seven emigrants who applied for aid and $61.59 was spent on transportation, while more than $1.550 went for salaries, repairs and incidental expenses. This showing is from a property worth over $15.000.

The resolutions recite that while the form of investment is such as to Meid but scant profit to the fund, it deprives the city and State of large tax revenues which the realty would yield were it in other hands. While the realty value of the fund is constantly increasing, yet through the decrease in immigration the opportunities for charity are steadily diminishing. Mr. Bland is one of the people. He does not have to go around palavering about the "working man" and the "common people," because he himself is one of us. He is no plutocrat—he is no aristocrat. According to their circular they ain't agoing to have any nonsense in their party. They are as the old lady said "contamined to have 100 cents in their dollar. Now the cent according to Britton A. Hill is the unit of value, same as the second is the unit of time and the meter is the unit of measure. in cycling sport, the Century Cycling Club contest, comes to the front. This will be the first inter-club contest that has ever taken place in St. Louis. While such affairs have long been a popular feature of cycling in the far West, they have not yet succeded in winning favor on this side of the Rockles.

Inter-club contests are, however, the very life of organized cycling. They-encourage and toster the esprit du corpa and club pride which is so indispensable to the life of organized cycling bodies.

When the Post-Dispatch first suggested that such contests would prove interesting to the public and beneficial to the organizations which might engage in them, the suggestion was not looked upon with favor.

After some consideration the long-headed men who have charge of cycling affairs in this city saw the matter in the same light as the Post-Dispatch. The coming race between the crack clubs of St. Louis is the result of their approval.

The great contest will take place on the driveway which circles the Fair Grounds on June 21, one week from next Sunday. The course is in splendid condition. It measures two miles to the lap and is an ideal boulevard course. There is only one hill on it and that is so slight that it can scarce be called a hill.

The grand stand will afford a splendid view of the riders. They will be visible during two-thirds of each lap and as they must in the course of their twenty-mile journey pass the stand ten times the spectators will have ample time to get acquainted with them. Those who have patiently stood hours in the sun just to catch a glimpse of a road racer shoot past will appreciate the facilities afforded by the Fair Grounds.

preciate the facilities afforded by the Fair Grounds.

It was rumored around the club-houses last night that the Centurys had asked a postponement of the race, urging that several of their men were badly hurt by falls in the Forest Park road race.

Investigation proved the rumor to be unfounded. The Centurys are ready and willing to race to-morrow.

"Why shouldn't we be eager to race?" said Frank Hitchings this morning. "We have got an even break and that is all we want. We will put the first man over the tape sure. Eddie Grath can't be beaten. Then Ross Miller will be in it. His showing in the Forest Park race was not a true one. The boy was ill and rode under the protest of his trainers. Frank Bosworth, Charley Knower and Capt. Rodgers gave them a taste of their quality in the Forest Park. The Wiels boys are getting into condition, and I tell you we will be in it."

Over at the Cycling Club the feeling of confidence is positively starting. All hands think that it is only a matter of pulling down the prize.

think that it is only a matter of pulling down the brize.

The Cycling Club boys feel sure that Bert Harding will take Grath's tow. While they cheerfully admit that the Century crack is a great rider, they claim that had Harding not been cut off in the stretch in the Forest Park road race Grath would not have had such an easy thing. They point to Alex Laing's record and want to know if Grath finishes first who will finish second and third and fourth and fitth. Grath is the only man they will allow the Centurys to place in the first six.

But that is all on paper and in their minds. On the road they do these things differently.

BRADY RIDES A BIKE.

Alderman Cronin Is Highly Disgusted With Genial John Thomas.

Alderman Cronin has trouble on his mind, and in his heart a deep, dark feeling of envy for John Thomas Brady.

The Alderman will not be cheered up even by the prospect of a land office business during the convention, nor the knowledge that his place has escaped the storm. Un-til John Thomas is brought into his saloon with all his bones broken the Alderman will not be happy.

The trouble is that John Thomas rides a bike, and Cronin can't ride anything smaller than an ice wagon.
"Now, what do a' think of that?" said the Alderman. "There that little sawed-off terrier goes against the bloycle game and gets hit just like the rest of 'em. It's a good thing, I don't think."

"What is wrong about it, Alderman?"
was asked.

"What is wrong about it, Alderman?"
was asked.

"Oh, uot a thing. Here's John Thomas what used to be my main booze fighter, gone and got wheels. Why, he comes in with bloomers on and a little dinkey cap on his head, so that the coon that washes the splittons gives him the Southern delegate eye. He's driving away business every day with his punctured fire and eyelometers and all that. The other day he takes Kid Sheridan and Shorty McCornick out to Forest Park to learn 'em to ride. He must 'a thought they had stuff on 'em, 'cause he didn't do a thing but try to kill both of 'em. Then he had the nerve to brace me to buy a tandem and ride with him. Say, wouldn't I be a peach in bloomers, getting up behind Brady on a tandem! Why, Bpeaker Kelly'd rule me off the floor for a bug, sura, He'd think I was Albert Aal trying to break in.

"It ain't no use talking, John Thomas is nutty, and I'm going over to get Dr. Jordan to tap his head and see what's in it."

John Thomas, however, still rides a birdycle which has come into his possession in some mysterious way—some say he traded in laundry wagon for it, others say he traded nothing but his nerve for it. In any event, he can be seen any old afternoon in his Knickerbockers and sweater giving the best of them a run for their money in Forest Park or on the roads.

every rider must have been a member of the contesting clubs before Dec. 1, 1895.

There has been considerable trouble lately on the drive around the Cottage in Forest Park. The rule of the Park provides that all vehicles coming down the hill shall do do so on the west side, while those going up to the Cottage shall do so on the east drive. Lately drivers of vehicles have taken to going up on the west. O. G. Bantley of the St. Louis Cycle Club Co. barely escaped a serious accident while riding down the west drive recently. He had a lady with him on a tandem and was coming down at a Evely rate, when suddenly a bugsy dashed round the curve. Mr. Bantley was forced to ride into the ditch and take a masty fall to escape being run over. The lady was badly scratched about the hands and knees. The police should see that carriages and buggies as well as bicycles obey the rules.

Tom Coburn has requested the Racing Board to transfer him to the professional class. There will be others.

Jack and Will Coburn Join the circuit at Galveston, Tex., to-day.

Charley Knower rode a tail race in the Forest Park race, and should be heard from in the inter-club event.

Ernest Stadte, the Class A crack of last season, was put out of the Forest Park race, by a "dead one" running into him.

Alex Laing, the time winner of the Forest Park prize, had a narrow escape from running into a tired competitor. The weak one was so dead that he swerved from one side of the road to the other. Laing came along howling like a tornado. The other did not hear him, and he just missed his pedal by six inches. That gives some idea of the figure mishaps cut in a road race. Had Laing, who climbed the bid hill on a 72 gear. Gus did the trick last Sunday on a 76 Viking. He says that he used a ball-bearing chain given him by E. L. Morgan, and that it helped him very much.

IS BILLY COX MARRIED?

It Is Rumored That the Racing Cyclist Has Assumed Matrimonial Bonds. A rumor to the effect that William J. cox, the well known racing cyclist, had taken unto himself a wife startled cycling club circles this morning.

Mr. Cox is very well known and popular among club wheelmen. He has always been regarded as a confirmed misogynist and a woman hater of the most proand a woman hater of the most pronounced sort.

He would never consent to ride with a lady, and a favorite expression of his was that "A man who rides a tandem with a girl should be incarcerated in an insane asylum."

This being the case, the rumor of his marriage occasioned no little excitement among his friends.

Inquiry at his place of business, the St.
Louis Cyclie Co., Illi Olive street, elicited the information that he had not shown up this morning.

Mr. O. G. Bantley, the manager of the establishment, and his assistant, Mr. E. L.
Morgan, both admitted that they had heard that Mr. Cox had assumed matrimontal responsibilities. They said that they knew nothing positive about it, as Mr. Cox had not taken anybody into his confidence.

The members of the St. Louis Cycling Club, of which Mr. Cox is a popular member, feel very much offended that he did not notify them of his approaching nuptials.

Turf Gossip.

Turf Gossip.

A. C. Franklin, Jr., J. M. Murphy's trainer, arrived this morning from Cincinnati. He says Prince Lief and Hop Lauderman's Ramiro are doing grand work, in preparation for the greatest turf event in Americathe celebrated National Derby, with its $20,000 rich, juicy plum. The great event will take place at the Fair Grounds Saturday, June 20.

If the Owners' Handicap race takes place Saturday next, the public will see three of the greatest race horses in America in Buck Massie, Assignee and Ramiro brought together.

Buck Massie, Assignee and Ramiro brought together.

J. M. Murphy, the well-known St. Louisan, owner of Buck Massie, Souffle and other cracker-jacks, received word from Cincinnati this morning that his famous filly, Souffle, had been shipped to Milwaukee, as much on account of the advantageous climatic conditions as anything else. Souffle may start in the Milwaukee derby, but Mr. Murphy has not positively decided upon this. Prince Lief, Ronde, Don Carillo and other flyers are entered for this big Milwaukee event.

Mike Dwyer is working Ben Eder in great shape for the National derby. He feels very confident that he will land the $20,000 stake.

Baseball Notes.

The Browns did not play in Boston yesterday on account of rain. The Baltimore-Louisville game was also postponed.

Silver King has pitched and won three games for Washington. Pretty good work for a resurrected "had been."

Brooklyn is bound to break the shut-out record. The Grooms have been whitewashed record. The Grooms have been whitewashed three times on their own grounds within a week. Cincinnati did the trick twice and Pittsburg once.

Al Buckenberger, who managed the Browns for a portion of last season, is making a barrel of money out of his Toronto team. Toronto is playing great ball in the Eastern League. Harry Staley is one of "Buck's" star pitchers.

When Ehret was with St. Louis his pitching entitled him to rank as the worst in the country. To-day he leads all the pitchers.

AMATEUR SAFE CRACKERS. They Worked Three Hours and Were

Frightened Off. Safe robbers broke in the rear door of the . Ruzicka Carriage Manufacturing Co.'s place at 813 Cass avenue Monday night and worked for three hours at the safe. They worked for three hours at the sale. They were then frightened away by the night watchman. That the work was that of amateurs is apparent from the fact that they worked three hours in sawing the steel hinges of the safe when they could have turned the knob and opened the door, as it had been carelessly left open.

There was considerable money in the safe at the time, but the burglars got none of it.

TO INSTRUCT THE ELECTORS.

This Is the Plan Being Discussed as a Way to Knife the Silver Nominee and Defeat the Party.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Word is passing quietly among the Democrats e Eastern States that no should be definitely framed pians should be definitely framed until the leaders confer at Chicago. In the meantime the feeling is growing stronger and stronger among New York Democrats in favor of a third ticket. bolt think it may be necessary in order preserve the present party organization. a boit think it may be necessary in order to preserve the present party organization.

"There must be a place provided for Democrats who cannot support a free coinage candidate to go to," said one of the leading Democrats of the State yesterday. "The Democrats will not vote for McKinley, and if there is not a third ticket they will stay at home. As a matter of principle, there ought to be a way provided so that they can exercise the right of the American citizen at the polis. Certainly some Democrat with a good name can be found to head a third ticket.

"As the presidential candidates are not voted for direct, the presidential electors nominated by the different Democratic conventions in the Eastern States can be instructed not to vote for any one for President who does not oppose the free coinage of sliver. In this way the Democratic organizations in the Eastern States can be controlled in the interest of the third candidate, or to be more precise, the sound Democratic candidate. For instance, Tammany, in this way, would simply support the regular Democratic electors, who would not vote for a sliver man, and castensibly remain inside the party.

"The Democratic State Convention on the 25th of this month is likely for this reason to be as interesting as the National Convention, for the Democrats of the other gold States may be depended upon to follow the lead of New Tork."

Sepator Caivin S. Brice was here yestensibly remain inside the party.

"The contest between the gold and silver platform may not be adopted.

"The ontest between the gold and silver platform. That being accomplished, sound money men must concede the right of a candidate who believes in the Chicago convention, which will adopt a sliver platform. That being accomplished, sound money men must concede the right of a candidate who believes in the platform. There will be no organized bolt at Chicago. Without an organization to bring out the vote, a ticket put up in opposition by the sound money men had, nothing suggest the tire way of relief, and before the people and remain out of the contest."

Mr. E. C. Benedict, who continues to hold more confidential relations with President Cleveland than any other man in this country, states the political situation in a manner that admits of no uncertainty. Mr. Benedict was seen last evening in Greenwich, Conn., where he is staying, and asked if he would favor having sound money Democrats support a Republican for President on a gold platform, rather than bolt from a free silver nomination at Chicago.

To shis Mr. Benedict replied:

"In my opinion Democrats cannot consistently vote for a candidate pledged to the free coinage of silver, and it would be equally inconsistent for them to vote for a sound money Republican, pledged to a protective tariff. Sound money delegates may not bolt from the Chicago free silver.

protective tariff. Sound money delegates may not bolt from the Chicago free silver nomination, but it will be found next November that sound money Democrats will-pretty generally do so.

The delegates to the National Convention are instructed to vote as a unit and to other coin only for a free coinage candidate for the momination of President and Vice-Presient. The platform also demands the imiediate admission of Arizona to statehood. A resolution pledging the Chicago deleates to Bland was voted down, as instructions were not deemed advisable.

York Heraid by Gov. Altgeld:

"What are your views on the probability of Cleveland supporting McKinley and the consequences of such action?"

To this the Governor replied as follows:
"England enabled Benedict Arnold to ravish Virginia after he had betrayed the colonies which had trusted and honored him; but no power on earth can enable Mr. Cleveland to further injure the Democratic party, which had honored and trusted him and which he has betrayed in a more cowardly manner than Arnold did the colonies. By all means let him support McKinley, for then Democratic success will be assured.

The Fair Reorganization.

The Fair Reorganization.

The reorganization sale which the Fair Shoe and Clothing Company has just inaugurated is an unprecedented opportunity for those in quest of all kinds of commodities in this particular line, as all values have been cut in half. A most charming array of men's suits, summer coats and vests, boys' knee suits of cheviot and cassimere, office coats, overcoats, shoes, furnishings, waists, skirts and wrappers, children's hats, fancy goods and millinery, will beset the eyes of the patronage.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Fair Shoe and Clothing Company held a few days ago, this reorganization was decided upon because of the depression in business prevalent the last few months. The reorganization will be consummated July 1, and from now until that time every department in this immense establishment has been instructed to make the aforesaid reduction. This disposition of stock will no doubt be highly satisfactory to both purchaser and seller. See their attractive an mouncement in another part of this paper.

Col. Stephens was not at his office when the representative of the Post-Dispatch called to inquire after his candidacy, but his assistant, Mr. Ed T. Orear, said that Mr. Stephens was at Fayette, Mo,, attending a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Central College, of which he is a member. When asked if he had noticed the telegram from Kansas City in the morning papers touching Judge Gantt's candidacy, Mr. Orear said:

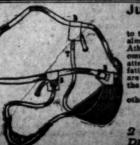

"Tes. I know nothing, however, about the probability of Judge Gantt becoming a candidate except what has been published in the newspapers. Judge Gantt is a good man. He would no doubt make a good dovernor. He has many friends throughout Missouri who would be pleased to see him the nomines. We were advised yesterday that Judge Cowgill, our Railroad Commissioner, was actively circulating a petition at the stock yards in Kansas City calling upon the Judge to make the race. I know nothing about the Judge's views on the money question except what has been said by the newspapers in the last few days. There is no doubt, however, about Judge Cowgill's views. He is a gold monometallist of the most pronounced type. He is a Cleveland man from head to foot, and the only Democrat I know of In Missouri who approves every act of the Cleveland administration, and says he believes Cleveland is the biggest man in the nation. Of course Judge Cowgill doesn't want a man who has been so courageously fighting for free coinage of sliver as Mr. Stephens nominated for Governor.

McKinley would not be nominated on the first ballot?"
"It was not through any fear on that score. Mad. McKinley wanted to talk over other matters. He has no fear of any combination to prevent his nomination. Nor has he any doubt that he will receive the enthusiastic vote of Missouri. All this talk about an informal ballot is the veriest non-sense. Maj. McKinley will be nominated before the roll-call is completed on the first ballot. Nothing can now prevent the consummation of the people's desire, and that is McKinley's nomination. The Major said many things then which my modesty forbids my repeating, but there was nothing said to indicate that he was apprehensive of any danger."

Col. Kerens was asked concerning the report that a movement was on foot to have the National Committee select Archbishop Kain to recite the opening prayer in the convention.

Continuing on the subject of his visit to lanton, Committeeman Kerens said it was ntended to stop over at Canton on his way back to St. Louis from New York, but the sycione changed his plans. On its receipt Mr. Frank and I made the visit to the next President."

While Col. Karens had nothing to say about Mr. Filley's statement that the nomnation would not be made on the first ballot, he apparently felt a whole lot he did not care to express. He did not want it understood that such an emanation from the Mosque caused any fear as to the loyalty of Missouri to McKinley.

Real Estate Men Give Their Opinion of the Leasing System.

Judge Valifant resumed the hearing of the "Shaw case" Tuesday morning. This is the suit brought by the Shaw trustees for authority to sell the Shaw property to such an extent at may be necessary to enable them to raise money to meet the cost of certain projected street improvements as well as to carry out Mr. Shaw's ideas concerning the Botanical Gardens. The witnesses were Mr. J. E. Yeatman, one of the trustees, and Messra. Vogel, Wade and other real estate men. They agreed that Mr. Shaw's system of sixty-year leases had proved a failure.

Mess. Vogel and Wade gave some interesting testimony as to the ills of the leasing system in its effect upon the leased property as well as upon adjacent property, and they referred for illustration to the condition of the Soulard property, the O'Failon property, the Biddle property, etc. The system had proved a bar to sound and substantial improvements wherever it was allowed vogue.

Seven years ago Hunt was sentenced to serve three and one-half years in the penitentiary on conviction of assaulting and robbing the late Capt. D. P. Slattery.

CYCLONE INSURANCE. SCHOLLMEYER-LEAHY,

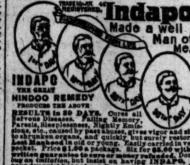

Petrie, August 8, 1895, at the residence of her parents, 2826 Madison street, St. Louis, when asked her opinion as to the merits of Ripans Tabules, how she came to use them and what was her ailment, said: "My opinion of Ripans Tabules? It's very good-I hold them in very high regard. They were recommended to me by a young man in Leland Miller's drug store. I have been annoyed considerably with black-heads and tried many kinds of toilet soaps and lotions to remove them, but wasn't very successful. Then I began to lose my appetite, and finally got so that at mealtime the very sight of food almost produced a feeling of nausea. I went to see a physician and he said I was suffering very badly from a poor digestion and that that was the cause of the blackheads. He prescribed for me, but I got tired taking his nasty medicines, and besides, I don't think it did me much good. One day I was in Leland Miller's and asked the clerk if he knew anything good for indigestion; he said: 'Try Ripans Tabules.' I did, and after using them for some time-it's no trouble to take them-I was greatly improved. My appetite came back and the unsightly facial disfigurement that annoyed me so much has entirely disappeared." One Gives Relief.

Ripans Tabules are sold by druggists, or by mail the price (50 cents a box) is sent to The Ripans hemical Company. No. 10 Spruce st., New York. umple vial, 10 cents.

against Thirteen Million Dollars for corresponding period in 1895, and Fifteen Million Dollars for same period in 1894. England has also been a large exporter of silver this year, and London to-day is in the market bidding for everything in sight, and offering a small premium for deliveries three months hence. France is in the market for SILVER for Russian coinage. Japan has taken from England nearly Two Million Dollars in April, and is known to be a probable buyer of SILVER to pay off some temporary War Loans. Spain bought Four Million Dollars worth of SILVER in May, and has unfilled orders for Four Million Dollars more of SILVER BULLION. The above facts are sufficient to show that SILVER is in demand, and there does not appear to be any large stocks of SILVER in the markets of the World Production has fallen off immensely, but so gradually as not to have excited comment. The lowest price for SILVER this year was 67 1-2c per ounce, and the highest was 69 3-3c per ounce. In 1890 the passage of the Sharman Act by the U. S. Senate caused a great advance in SILVER BULLION—it sold as high as 121 1-4c per ounce; and although I do not anticipate such figures at present, I do expect considerably higher prices and wide fluctuations. I recommend my friends and customers—silversmiths and manufacturers, to lay in their requirements for some time to come, as money is so easy at present that I can carry SILVER BULLION at the low rate of 4 per cent interest. I submit the above to your kind careful consideration.

In order to effect a strong independent organization the logic of the situation demands the calling of a convention after the two old parties have put their tickets in the field to nominate candidates. Of course, Senator Teller of Colorado is the only candidate spoken of or whose claims are worthy of serious consideration.

The date and location of the convention are details which have not yet received attention, but in view of the conclusion which for months has been foregone that the St. Louis convention is going to be controlled by the goldbugs, the general plans of the independent movement have been discussed at numerous conferences at Washington and elsewhere by Senators Teller, Dubois, Pettigrew, Cannon, Carter, Mantle and others whose tenure of office depends on their loyal and outspoken support of silver.

DEMOCRATS STAYED AWAY.

Kept Out of the House on Account of a Contest.

WASHINGTON, June 9 .- When the House washington, June 9.—When the House reconvened this morning at 10 o'clock the legislative day of Saturday was still in existence. There was a fair attendance of Republicans, but the Democratic benches were a barren waste. Less than half a dozen of the minority were on the floor. This refusal on the part of the Democrats to attend the session grew out of the determination of the majority to consider the contested election case of Aldrich vs. Underwood.

mination of the majority to consider the contested election case of Aldrich vs. Underwood.

Mr. McMillan (Dem.) of Tennessee, in explanation of the absence of the members on his side of the House, said that the Democrats did not consider it their duty to attend the closing hours of the session to help furnish a quorum for the purpose of unseating another Democrat.

The pending question to-day was the motion to lay on the table the motion to consider by vote, which the House decided to consider the election case. The vote resulted—98 to 31; 15 being present and declining to vote. This made a total of 15 present, 34 less than a quorum.

In order to break the deadlock which confronted the majority, a call of the House was ordered. The doors were closed, and the sergeant-at-arms was directed to bring in absentees.

The Tucker rule adopted at the beginning of the session was invoked for the first time. It compelled members brought in by the Sergeant-at-Arms to vote on the pending question. The motion was carried—130 to 45.

The Speaker counted four members as present, but not voting.

Mr. McMillan attempted to make the point of order that the report in the election case was not-signed by a majority of the members of the committee and therefore did not constitute a question of privilege.

The chair ruled that if the point of order had merit it came too late, as the House had decided to consider the case.

Mr. Daniels (Rep.) of New York, addressed the House in favor of seating the contestant, Mr. Aldrich. He gave notice that he would demand the previous question at the expiration of fifty minutes.

Underwood had 1,156 majority on the face of the returns. Fraud and intimidation were charged and the majority found that Aldrich received in fact a majority of 220.

The minority admitted that the returns were incorrect, but claimed that the correct returns gtill gave 1,033 majority.

While in the States, Viscount Sudley wrote to her almost daily urging a resumption of their former relations, and promising ultimate marriage. Moved at last by his importunities, according to counsel for the plaintiff, Miss Smith decided to return to Sudley and lived with him until he again cast her off, as he is alleged to have explained, at the command of his father. The Viscount denies that he ever promised marriage and asserts that he was introduced to the plaintiff by a brother officer, his relations with her beginning a few days after the meeting.

Popular resentment over the forcing of political issues into the School Board has decreased the chances of Ford Smith and F. A. Wind for the prise. H. H. by the sub-committee and in all probability will be adopted.

The first day's disbursements under the new method are estimated by Dr. Boyd at $10,000, bringing the total expenditures up to $45,000 in round numbers. A large margin still remains, and the action of the committee on last Friday calling for more contributions has been discussed extensively in consequence. The belief also prevails that too little aid is being given. It is still the opinion of those working among the sufferers that the entire amount on hand will soon be exhausted, and that more money will be needed, especially when the work of aiding sufferers to rebuild is commenced.

Walter Vrooman, secretary of the Relief Committee, desires to correct the statement that the fund is being used to pay salaries to assistants. There is no pay roll, and every person working for the committee is giving his services gratuitously.

THE WORK OF DELIEF.

Committees Deny That the Distribu tion Was Miserly Inadequate. Some members of the branch of the Re-lief Committee for the Third District, at 1920 istribution of the funds raised for the tor-made sufferers unjust.

Messrs. E. Hartman, chairman, and Henry Fisher treasurer, of the Third District Relief Committee, called at the Post-Dispatch office and told what had been done at office and told what had been done at their headquarters.

"We collected $1,650 in our district," they said, "and the Merchants' Exchange Relier Committee gave us $2,000 more. They gave us everything we asked for, and we did not have to ask twice. We think it an injustice to the committee to call them miserly in their distribution. Every applicant in our district has been relieved to the best of our ability."

Speaking for a committee from St. Vin-

Speaking for a committee from St. Vincent de Paul Society, Mr. Louis Fusz said to a Post-Dispatch reporter:
"It is erroneous to suppose that the relief to the tornado sufferers has been dispensed with a syndrice. "It is erroneous to suppose that the relief to the tornado sufferers has been dispensed with a grudging hand, or that more money was collected than was needed. The cases requiring immediate relief in the matter of food and clothing, or even a month's house rent, were few and easy to relieve as compared with another class—those who owned houses which were encumbered with debt. "It is this last class that will be difficult to get at, yet its wants are greater than those of poorer people who had nothing to lose and only required the assistance of food and raiment for a few days.

"There is yet a great deal of work to be done, and it will have to be done systematically in order to prevent fraud, in order to avoid pauperising those aided and in order to see that no worthy subject is overlooked."

part of the fund to the Emergency Loan Association.

They declare that contributions were not made for the purpose of lending money to sufferers, but of giving it to them. They accordingly approve of the editorial in Monday's Post-Dispatch, declaring the fund to be held in trust for the sufferers, and of the resolutions of Mayor Walbridge, which were an indorsement of the editorial.

The resolutions were introduced at the meeting of the Merchants' Exchange Executive Committee, Monday afternoon, directing the disposition of the money remaining in the fund. They are as follows:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this committee that the fund contributed by citizens, of which this committee is trustee, is intended to be given to sufferers from the recent tornade in an equitable manner as a free gift, and that no portion of said fund should be turned over to an association formed for the purpose of loaning money.

Resolved, That the chairman of this com-manner as a free gift, and that no portion of said fund should be turned over to an association formed for the purpose of loaning money.

Resolved, That the chairman of this committee be instructed to appoint five responsible and disinterested clitzens from the storm-stricken district to make a thorough canvas of the district, for the purpose of ascertaining the names and approximately the amount of loss of persons in said district who have suffered a total loss of their property or such loss as will disqualify them from earning sufficient to sustain themselves and their families and have not sufficient property left to enable them to secure loans in the ordinary way.

Resolved, That when said committee reports, the funds remaining under the control of this committee shall be distributed equitably among such persons as a free gift, or so much thereof as may be deemed wise by this committee.

B. Nugent & Bro. were among the heavy contributors to the relief fund. When asked his opinion on the question Mr. B. Nugent said to a Post-Dispatch reporter:

"I believe with the Post-Dispatch that this money is held in trust for the sufferers. I believe that a very careful investigation should be made and that those sufferers who are really in need of money to rebuild their homes should be given it. I do not believe the money should be loaned. It was not contributed for that purpose, but to afford relief to those deserving it. I do not believe the money should be loaned. position to receive it as a loan, occasion without hope of being able to repay, should be given the money without expectation of its return.

Mr. O. L. Whitelaw was questioned on the matter at the Mercantile Club. His firm, Whitelaw Bros., was among the leading contributors to the fund.

"I do not see how this money can be rightfully diverted to the emergency loan fund, said Mr. Whitelaw. "I am opposed to such a step on the principle that the money belongs to the sufferers already and is merely held by the committee in trust for them. It was not intended by contributors that it should be loaned to the sufferers. The very poor should receive assistance from this fund in rebuilding their homes as a gift."

M. J. Bolland, through whom a contribution of $1,000 was made by the St. Louis Jewelers, has all along opposed the effort to divert the fund. Speaking of the matter Tuesday, he said:

"The Post-Dispatch is right on this question and I am glad to see that a resolution has been presented to the Merchants' Exchange Committee in line with it. The committee states that it can raise $35,000. The total is already $250,000. Of this sum less than $45,000 has been expended. I believe that not enough money is being expended in this work for the relief of the tornado sufferers. I know of numerous Instances where no relief has been received. To turn any of the money over to the Loan Association, in my opinion, would be wrong. It should be given to the deserving without any condition whatever. What I said in the Post-Dispatch yesteriday occasioned this letter which I received to-day."

The letter referred to by Mr. Bolland was as follows:

as follows:

1015 Olive Street, June 8, 1896.

Mr. J. Bolland: Dear Sir—As a humble contributor of $5 to the relief fund which I don'ated, from very slender resources, for the relief of women and children only, I am heartily in accord with your sentiments above expressed in the Post-Dispatch of this date and I hone von will use your influence. heartily in accord when above expressed in the Post-Dispatch of this date and I hope you will use your influence to insure that the fund is not diverted to assist those who can assist themselves.
